

LIVING ARCHAEOLOGY WEEKEND

Take this sheet to the different stations. Find out the answers as you listen to the presenters. Fill-in the blanks, or draw your answers on the back of this sheet. Then, come back to the KAS table and find-out how you did! GOOD LUCK!!!!

1. What is the French word for flint chips? debitage
2. What animal organ did the Indians use to tan hides? brain
3. What plants did the Indians use for medicine? willow, coneflower, sage, St. John's wort
4. What kinds of rocks did the Indians use to make celts, adzes, and axes? chert, flint
5. What is the main ingredient used in pottery making? clay
6. What is the Aztec name for spear thrower? atlatl
7. What makes an arrow fly straight? fletching
8. Where can you find cane in Kentucky? river banks, floodplains

(c) 2008 Living Archaeology Weekend Steering Committee

LIVING ARCHAEOLOGY WEEKEND

Take this sheet to the different stations. Find out the answers as you listen to the presenters. Fill-in the blanks, or draw your answers on the back of this sheet. Then, come back to the KAS table and find-out how you did! GOOD LUCK!!!!

1. What is the French word for flint chips? _____
2. What animal organ did the Indians use to tan hides? _____
3. What plants did the Indians use for medicine? _____
4. What kinds of rocks did the Indians use to make celts, adzes, and axes? _____
5. What is the main ingredient used in pottery making? _____
6. What is the Aztec name for spear thrower? _____
7. What makes an arrow fly straight? _____
8. Where can you find cane in Kentucky? _____

(c) 2008 Living Archaeology Weekend Steering Committee